BOY'S SHOOTING CAUSES STIR IN CONGRESS

College Student Fatally Wounded by Virginia Authorities Seeking Liquor

FUND BEING RAISED

Abingdon People Seek Money To Prosecute Authorities Who Killed Youth

WASHINGTON May 9—The fatal shooting of J W Kendrick 17 year old college boy by Virginia sheriff because they suspected his automobile might contain liquor caused another stir in congress today

Senator Copeland Democrat of New York characterized the shooting as a crime little short of murder

How long oh how long will the American people tolerate the blood shed caused by brainless underlings in the campaign for enforcement of an unenforceable law he asked

This affair was an outrageous invasion of private rights by unrestrained officials If the possession of liquor were inherently a crime there would be some excuse for the use of pistols other than in self defense Since it is a crime merely by legislative enactment public sentiment will never indorse such assaults as these

Helen Wills, Amid Flurry of Excitement, Prepares To Meet Queen of England

Ten Policemen Required To Protect American Tennis Star from Seething Mob Struggling for Glimpse of Her, Unaffected by Adulation

LONDON May 9—Losing for the first time some of the calm which earned her the title of 'little poker face' on the tennis court Miss Helen Wills left the American Womens club here in a flurry of excitement shortly before 6 o'clock this morning for her presentation to Queen Mary at the first royal court of the season

In sharp contrast to the trim boyish figure so familiar on the tennis courts of the world Miss Wills presented a picture of youthful grace and beauty in her gown of ivory white satin

A hasty survey of the occupants of the limousines lined up in the mall revealed that none of the dresses worn by the debutantes transcended in beauty the ivory gown that Miss Wills wore She presented a truly beautiful picture in unbroken white from satin slippers to gleaming head dress and the consensus of opinion was that she was one of the most attractive American girls ever honored by presentation to Britain's rulers at the royal courts

In spite of the fact that there was a total of 125 cars waiting in the mall each with its burden of royal splendor formerly Miss Wills' limousine formed the focal point of the seething mob So dense became the throng, struggling for a glimpse of her that the five policemen specially detailed to her limousine found themselves unable to cope with the crowd and an additional squad of five were rushed to the spot

Never before in the history of the royal court had any presentee attracted such attention as to warrant the undivided attention of 10 police men

This is the fifth year in succession that I have handled the court crowds 'one perspiring bobbie' said and I have never seen anything like this"

Miss Wills remained unaffected by the adulation, however, and whiled away the time by writing and sketching, her pad balanced on her knee

BRITISH TURN DOWN YOUNG DEBT PLAN

Say New Proposals Not Acceptable to Government in England

PEOPLE CHEER

Announcement Made To Prevent "Misconception Abroad, Alarm at Home"

LONDON May 9 — The new reparation proposals contained in the Young plan are not acceptable to the British government and could in no circumstances be entertained Chancellor of the Exchequer Winston Churchill announced in the house of commons this afternoon He said his announcement was made in order to prevent misconception abroad and alarm at home

Churchill emphasized that the government remains entirely free to make its own decision upon the recommendations made by the experts committee now considering the reparations problem in Paris

The chancellor of the exchequer's announcement was received with prolonged cheers

Expect New Plan To Be Accepted

PARIS May 9—Although protests against the downward revision of reparation apportionments under the Young plan continued to pile up today in the French Italian and British press there were straws in the wind that the terms would eventually be accepted with possibly some modifications

Even if the Young plan is accepted by the experts it must be approved by the Allied governments before it is effective

Under the Young plan England would receive only sufficient funds to pay the British war debt to the United States This is the basis of the protests by the British newspapers

The Belgian protest is based upon the fact that under the Young plan Belgium would have her original reparation claim cut nearly in half, or down to 01,000 000 marks In addition Belgium would receive payments to cover debts

France's annuities would be slashed below the figure which the French had previously said was their minimum

BOUNTY PLAN FACED BY HOSTILE HOUSE

Debenture Proposal Put into Farm Relief Bill by Upper Chamber

efforts on forcing a record roll call in the house.

Discarded in Campaign

The farm battle continued merrily in the senate but with administration forces anxious to terminate it. The debenture pushed the old equalization fee into the background although the senate will get a chance to vote on this former favorite within the next day or two.

Senator Copeland, Democrat, of New York offered an amendment, including the fee in the new bill, but he had little hope of securing its adoption. Although this form of farm relief proved a favorite with congress for the last four years, it was definitely discarded in the last campaign.

DRY AGENT ORDERS LIQUOR; MAN HELD

Phone Request for Rum Leads to Downfall of Alleged Bootlegger

CINCINNATI, May 9 — "Bring over a case of liquor" was the telephone request received by Victor Hanson, alleged bootlegger, here last night.

Hanson heard. Hanson obeyed. He is in jail today.

It happened like this:

Willard P. Bureus, federal prohibition agent in charge of the Cincinnati district, and regarded as the chief of southern Ohio enforcement officers, alleges he learned the telephone number of Hanson's home and that liquor could be obtained there.

Working on this report, Bureus called up Hanson last night and ordered a case. Hanson made what Bureus regards as an impregnable case, when the alleged bootlegger arrived at Bureus' local home with an auto load of supposed liquor.

Bureus seized the man's auto and 50 bottles of gin and whiskey. Then he obtained a search warrant and raided Hanson's home where he said he confiscated six bottles of whisky and nearly 50 bottles of home brew.

According to Bureus, Hanson asked $100 a case for the alleged liquor.

AMARILLO, Tex., May 9—R. H. Hamilton, well known jurist and active in church affairs, today was under indictment for the killing of ... Walton ... and stood ... Fuse were preparing for what is expected to be one of the most sensational trials in the history of the Panhandle.

The first move was made by the state late yesterday when the Potter county grand jury returned a bill against Hamilton charging murder. Hamilton was arrested late last night and placed in jail.

Walton was riddle with bullets as he stepped into Judge Hamilton's law office last Saturday. He had been sent on the mission that proved a journey of death by his mother who had worried over her son's secret marriage to the jurist's daughter, Theresa H.

ACQUIT MICHAELSON OF DRY CHARGES

Retires to Hotel Room with Orders Not To Be Disturbed to his acquittal and left word that he was not to be disturbed.

Mrs. Michaelson declared her husband is being ... but tired.

After the verdict was announced at 1:10 a. m., acquitting the dry commissioner on two counts of importing, ... transporting, liquor, a round of applause swept the courtroom.

Out Four Hours

Michaelson then left the courtroom for his hotel.

The jury received the case at 8:47 o'clock last night and announced their findings at 1:10 a. m. today.

Michaelson's acquittal was regarded as a complete exoneration of the charges made against him. Assistant United States Attorney N. J. Morrow, in his closing argument last night, called upon the jury to return a verdict that would put an end to the argument that the country's liquor laws were made only to curtail the rights of the poor man.

Surprise Witness

The defense ended its case against Michaelson with a surprise witness in the person of Walter Gramm of Cincinnati, brother-in-law of the congressman. He admitted the trunks seized at Jacksonville terminal station and alleged to have contained liquor were his trunks.

He testified these same trunks had been brought into the United States from Cuba by Michaelson under his request as Michaelson had obtained the courtesy of the port. He emphatically denied any knowledge of the liquor being in the trunks.

He said he and Mrs. Gramm, Mr. and Mrs. Michaelson and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rain had left New York for Panama in December, had later visited Havana, returning to the States via Key West. The Michaelsons left the party in Miami and returned to Washington, he said.

Michaelson on Stand

Michaelson followed Gramm to the stand to deny having had any knowledge that liquor was in the trunks. He said that three of the trunks were his and that two belonged to Gramm and one to Lester Rain. He denied any ownership of the six trunks seized in the Jacksonville terminal station and said that his own trunks went on to Washington.

"Did you have any knowledge of any liquor being in the trunks that you brought in from Mr. Gramm and Mr. Rain or in your own trunks, for that matter," he was asked.

"I did not," Michaelson replied.

OBSERVANCE HELD FOR ASCENSION DAY

Special Services Conducted Today in Marion Churches

Forty days after His resurrection, Jesus appeared to His apostles for the last time and brought them outside the walls of Jerusalem on the Mount of Olives. After taking the meal of departure with them He went up to ward the highest part of the mountain. Then after entrusting them to preach the gospel to all the world and comforting them, He ascended into the sky.

Today St. Mary's Catholic church, St. Paul's Episcopal church and Emanuel's Lutheran church are celebrating the ascension into heaven.

Special masses were sung at 5, 7, 8 and 9:30 o'clock at St. Mary's and Holy Communion was taken at 7 and 10 o'clock in St. Paul's church.

The Rev. J. W. Schilling, pastor of Emanuel's Lutheran church is celebrating with a festival service and sermon on Ascension Day at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

In the Catholic church this is one of the six Holy Days of Obligation when Catholics throughout the world are bound by the church law to attend mass.

The Marion Masonic bodies have made no special plans for the observance of the day which is one of the four Templar Holy Days in the year.

CLARK ADDRESSES LOCAL KIWANIANS

Community Fund Pronounced Best Method of Welfare Financing

The Community Fund, its significance and purpose, its method of operation and intimate details of the $61,000 drive to be conducted in Marion beginning May 13, were discussed by Henry Clark, representative of the American City Bureau, in a talk before the Kiwanis club in its weekly luncheon at the Marion Club today.

The Community Fund plan has been the most successful method of supporting equally the financial burden of community welfare agencies, Mr. Clark said. It is a business like systematized plan conducted once a year furnishing enough revenue to support 10 welfare organizations. From 15 cities a decade ago the community fund is now used by 350 cities.

In commenting on the $61,000 goal set for Marion, Mr. Clark said the per capita assessment would be approximately $1.60 much less than the national per capita average of $2.67.

Character building organizations, particularly the Boy Scouts and the Y. M. C. A. are investments in the citizenship of tomorrow, Mr. Clark said, claiming this organization as important as work to relieve starvation and suffering. They are among the organizations to benefit from the council fund drive.

Mr. Clark pointed to the fund campaign as an opportunity for Kiwanians to build for the future.

DEMOCRATS SPLIT OVER TARIFF BILL

Republicans Claim Progress To Overcome Dissatisfaction in Ranks

WASHINGTON, May 9—Democratic ranks on the house committee today over the new Hawley-Smoot tariff bill, as Republican leaders claimed progress in their efforts to overcome wide spread dissatisfaction among their own members.

While some Democrats were assailing the new tariff bill as an outrageous piece of legislation, other Democrats from Florida, Louisiana and Texas found much in the bill to bring to their constituents.

Heavy increases in duties to protect Florida tropical fruits and vegetables, Louisiana sugar and the wool and the fruit and vegetable interests of Texas gave promise of many Democratic votes for the new bill.

Democratic members of the ways and means committee who were denied a part in the making of the bill canvassed the situation in a lengthy meeting, but failed to reach an agreement on a course of action.

RHEUMATISM RELIEVED OVERNIGHT—OR NO COST

Astonishing New German Discovery Guaranteed to Bring Relief in First Treatment or Money Back

Why put up with the excruciating pain of the crippling torture of chronic rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, neuritis or similar ailments? Why spend days in the blood misery and ... when you can now get relief overnight? With your very first treatment with Trunskuban, ... can now ... up tomorrow free from pain and stiffness with wonderful new freedom of movement in muscles and joints or money back.

Thanks to the genius of German scientists you can now right in your own home at your own convenience, at a mere fraction of the time and cost, benefit from this marvelous new treatment ... the most authorities declare equivalent in effect to 10 to 15 treatments at the famous German Health Spas for which multitudes spend many months and thousands of dollars.

Trunskuban, as this new treatment is called, is a wholly new, revolutionary therapy. It has met with brilliant success at hospitals and sanitariums in Europe and now in the United States. One famous physician reported that in 97% of over 1,000 cases he treated. Now in your own home at moderate cost you can enjoy the Trunskuban treatment. Try it. And without any risk whatever for the very first treatment will bring you relief or cost nothing.

Here's how these successful Trunskuban methods work. Its medicinally approved ingredients are absorbed through the pores of the skin into the blood stream where they act to dissolve and drive out the acid deposits in muscles and joints which cause chronic rheumatic pains. These physicians have demonstrated to their own satisfaction that by the Trunskuban therapy, medicines can be successfully administered through the skin without upsetting the stomach, kidneys or heart.

These scientists hold that one Trunskuban treatment is equivalent to 10 to 15 baths at the famous Spas where rich people go to get well. Even the first treatment with Preparatory Trunskuban No. 1 breaks the grip which rheumatism has on your system or money back. Continued treatments with Regular Trunskuban No. ... depending upon the seriousness of your case should show progressive improvement until all symptoms of the ailment are driven out. Trunskuban is a real medical treatment, not just a palliative. If you merely seek momentary comfort from pain don't bother with Trunskuban. But if you want to drive the torture of rheumatism out of your system Trunskuban is the treatment you have been looking for.

An interesting little booklet called How to Drive the Agonies of Rheumatism Out of Your System gives you full information about Trunskuban—what it is, how it works, what it does for you, etc. Get your FREE copy today at Denney & Cooper, 140 W. Center St.—Adv.

Goes to Fall's Aid Again.

Much skepticism was voiced by those over eager to believe the worst when Edward L Doheny stated that he had given Albert B Fall $100 000 as a loan temporarily to relieve him from financial embarrassment Just at that time a number of political rain makers were doing a lot of powwowing in the hope of gaining political advantage and they naturally made the utmost of the $100 000 and the little black bag which happened to have been a brown one in which Doheny's son carried the currency to Fall

Those political witch doctors some of whom are now engaged in a campaign to get Secretary Mellon professed to scorn the idea that Doheny would give up $100 000 to save his old time friend of pioneer mining days in the Southwest and they made a deep impression on the public which did not stop to consider that $100 000 would mean about as much to a man of Doheny's millions as ten cents would to the average man

Well there isn't any political campaign in the immediate offing at present and yet the wires tell us that Doheny has once more gone to the assistance of his old time friend having expended $163 250 to satisfy a court judgment on a mortgage note to save the Fall 790 000 acre ranch in New Mexico from being sacrificed for a fraction of it worth estimated by Doheny at $500 000 It is true that Doheny holds a second mortgage on the two thirds interest of Fall in the property for $100 000 to secure the loan made by him to Fall but the fact that his agent was the only bidder at the sheriff's sale in Alamogordo New Mexico Monday and that his bid carried only the amount of the first mortgage and $7 000 accrued interest thereon make plain as stated in the story of the sale, that there was an agreement of all the parties interested and that the action of Doheny was in protection of the interests of Fall

As to the guilt or innocence of the former secretary of the interior in the Teapot Dome matter we do not know nor have we means of knowing but at this time it is worth noting that the course of the mill empire out man this week was thoroughly in line with course he claims he followed in making the $100,000 loan some years ago.

Now as to the boy who has won for himself this high honor and substantial cash award Who is he? As to that the story of the award tells that his circumstances were such that he had to work afternoons in a radio store to support himself while going through high school in his home town down in South Carolina He entered Yale in February 1925 and to defray his expenses at once went to work as a waiter in a New Haven restaurant which job he held until a week ago although he had won a scholarship for his final year at the art school

We do not pretend to know but it is a fairly safe guess that young Sitton hasn't paid much attention to dates during the last four years It is just as safe a guess that he during that period didn't spend much money in night clubs It is a hundred to one proposition too that he didn't wear out any hip pockets toting a flask about Youths who work their way through school and college seldom give much time to frivolities Having to pay their own way they learn the value alike of money and time and usually make the most of both Such youths go to college to study and that's what they do when they get there—work to live and study to advance along the line of their chosen pursuits And that's unquestionably why so many of the youths who work their way through college attain splendidly That's why comparing their number with the number of those who go through college on financial beds of roses so many more of them attain high honors The son of wealth the son of comfortable means doesn't necessarily fritter his time away Some such achieve honors Some prove themselves in all ways worthy as examples of scholarship and manhood alike But in this day and age when so many of our young people enter college for its social or its athletic opportunities or to gain a freedom not theirs under the home roof the youth who has time to spare is not so liable to utilize his time to so good advantage as the youth who is rushed for time because of the fact that he is working his way through

The Illinois house has voted 112 to seven to repeal what is known in that state as the Crowe attorney law which is alleged to have been passed for the purpose of thwarting the prosecution of Chicago election frauds and violence It is a sad commentary on government when laws have to be repealed to permit of the punishment of crooks and thugs

Choose Unpolluted Water.

BY ROYAL S COPELAND M D

Blessed is the country boy born near an old swimming pool fed by the waters of an uncontaminated stream City boys are far less fortunate They must do their swimming in waters filled with sewage and germs of disease

I am led to these reflections by reason of an article I saw in the newspaper It was an interview with the director of health education of New York city's department of health He was bewailing the fact that the harbor waters about New York are badly polluted

Each year with the advent of bathing beauties come new cases of eye and ear affections skin troubles and worst of all new typhoid fever cases Since 1922 and up to the close of 1928 almost 700 cases of typhoid in this city were traced to bathing beaches prescribed by the department in which bathers ignored our warning

It is too bad that so little attention is given by many persons to the dangers of contaminated waters Not only are they willing to bathe in these waters but travelers into the country frequently drink from springs and streams without knowing anything about the purity of the water In this connection I quote again from the newspaper article about disease in New York City

And of the 3 148 other typhoid cases the infection of which was not traceable there is little doubt that many of them came from bathing in polluted waters

With the beginning of the bathing season I hope everybody will give heed to the importance of selecting safe places for swimming It is a dangerous thing to jump into an unknown and unexplored pool There may be treacherous depths snags of trees or submerged rocks Unless counsel can be taken of somebody familiar with this proposed bathing pool it should be carefully explored before any lives are taken into the water

But far more dangerous than the things I have just mentioned are the possibilities of the presence of germs in the water To get them into your system may bring severe illness and even death

I am glad that many states and municipalities have passed laws prohibiting the reckless contamination of the water supplies The other day I saw a man almost frothing from anger because he was not permitted to establish a hazardous industry on the bank of a noble stream the waters of which were used for drinking purposes by a nearby city It was a wise law that prevented such an action

Bathing and swimming are desirable from the standpoint of health But I beg of you not to go into the water unless you know it is free from contamination

NO MORE POLITICAL JUDGES

It is certain President Hoover will meet with opposition in establishing his new custom of disregarding partisan demands in making appointments to the federal bench Information that he had determined to follow that line came from the head of the department of justice Obviously that official must have been delegated to make the news push The reason for the adoption of the new method is the wish of the President to be unhampered in seeking to find the best men for service on the bench

Thoughtful people will recognize the soundness of the policy thus established and practical politicians will admit it upsets a well established bit of patronage Party leaders in the states and senators will not welcome the new plan Senators enjoy being called in for consultation on the appointments It helps make them strong in their party Senators are human and will not enjoy giving up power once held It is quite probable friction over confirmation may be developed certainly some senatorial feelings will be sadly ruffled

In Ohio good selections for the federal bench have been made during recent years and the state has escaped the troubles incident to improper selections Many years ago Ohio did have such troubles did have some improper men on the bench placed there as a part of political patronage States can recall those troubles and welcome the plan for a judiciary free from political influence This country should have the best courts The president is entitled to popular support in trying to supply them at a time when some conspicuous failures on the bench have been paraded before the public—Ohio State Journal

SINCLAIR GOES TO JAIL

Harry Sinclair one of the richest if not the richest man who ever went to jail was accompanied by a chauffeur and a lawyer and a big limousine last night to the black iron doors that have sealed the fate shattered the hope and cut off with a metallic clang the life of many a man The chauffeur and the lawyer and the big limousine left him when he stepped inside But they will be waiting for him when he comes out again His sentence to jail does not fall upon him as a curtain shutting off the past or obscuring the future His stay in jail is merely an interlude

One of the most prominent figures in a national scandal he does not go to jail as a convicted criminal He goes because he guessed wrong The words of the trial judge come back now with the ring of prophecy fulfilled Counsel was explaining to the court that his client had merely followed his advice in refusing to answer questions put to him by the senators Yes said the judge and many a man is in the graveyard today who followed the advice of his physician and many a man is in jail today who followed the advice of his counsel

In the eyes of the public Sinclair has never been a hero One could not see him as an Horatius at the bridge He defied the courts—but on advice of counsel The manner in which he accepts his fate presents him with an opportunity one of the few he has ever had perhaps to shine in the eyes of his countrymen His countrymen love a good sport They overlook many things if one only proves himself a good sport Sulking in his cell Sinclair will emerge to the taunts and the jeers of his countrymen Bearing his cross like a man drinking his cup and swallowing the dregs without complaint Harry Sinclair will step from the jail cell established as near as he can ever hope to be in the estimation of Americans The dollar has no vibration depends upon him off alone—without advice of counsel — Washington Star May 7

New York Day by Day.

BY O O McINTYRE

New York May 9 — On the Bowery one night a thief snatched an old lady's pocketbook and was making his escape when a fellow countryman reached out and tripped him up The thief was caught by a policeman and the old lady's pocketbook restored

The fellow who tripped the thief was a Greek who had just arrived in America He had been working in a popcorn candy and lemonade stand on a busy corner before the bank and he was there when the excitement broke

The Greek had a hard time explaining to the policeman that he was a citizen of the world and that he was not interested in the affairs of any particular country

"My people," he said, "have been working in wood out of which they make pencils and lead pencils under the burden of galley slave ridicule for a coin tossed up from the outstretched palm of a cringing beggar I had no meaning when I first came to America The common place of every day life seems the exotic

On the inside of the cover before you got to the songs were selections from famous recitations The first I noticed was one of the Baggage Car or the Trip from Cincinnati It concerned the express man found deserted among the Pullman cars and left to the chances

If on God's earth there is a word
More sacred than another
A word held dear by one and all,
Six letters spell it mother

Among the songs were Christmas Day in the Kitchen Down in the Lehigh Valley Waiting for a Bus It's the Woman Who Pays in the End Mahoney's Feminine Cat The Volunteer Organist How Soon We Are Forgotten When We're Broke and Poor Jenny's Last Request

And hearken to this from The Dishwasher's Dream Hark you hear me alone in the kitchen in grease laden steam and his jeremiad runs thusly

For me not the smile of the ladies who dine
Not the sweet clinging kisses begotten of wine
For me but the venting of low sweating groans
That twelve hours a night have instilled in my bones

They are reviving that story of Ring Lardner's sneer for snobbery As I get he was invited along with several other literary luminaries to a Park Avenue tea Once inside his suspicions were confirmed The hostess was making a side show of literature

One tittupy and dapper gentleman with a springy gait and waxed mustache sought out Mr Lardner and with great gusto told of his noble lineage Of course he gurgled in this age when the bourgeoisie seems temporarily in ascendance it is good to know one is of the French Huguenots

As he babbled on Mr Lardner in owl eyed solemnity teetered—on his soles and heels without comment one way or another Finally the gentleman inquired about his families I was born said Mr Lardner in Niles Michigan of colored parents

Behind circus scenes are likely more family skeletons than elsewhere on the globe Here is a mix up existing with the Ringling show A trapeze performer daily catches a former wife in death defying leaps from one trapeze to another He is himself married to an aerialist and the announcer who announces all the acts is a former husband or not only the aerialist but the lady trapezist They are the best of friends and thrown together constantly in agreeable companionship Incidentally I am told the real aristocrats of the circus are the families who do the bare back riding

The Volcanic Moon.

BY GARRETT P SERVISS

The mystery of the moon seems to deepen than ever with the most investigation It is an old joke that the satellite is made of green cheese It is no joke to say that she may become of pumice stone Pumice stone is a product and ever since Galileo directed his telescope near the moon with crater shaped mountains it has been the general opinion that all the world of volcanoes The volcanoes apparently dead to be sure but they may have been alive once and the spectacle presented when hundreds were in eruption covering the face of the with fire and smoke would have been a thrilling sight for any inhabitants of who might have been living on the There are craters on the moon fifty in diameter Beside these mountains are crowded whose yawning throats the vents and fissures seem trifles

A queer thing about the lunar is that they are rather holes than mountains They are all mouth Their walls miles in height or depth but they of mountainous rings each encircling a wide depression which sinks hundreds feet below the general level of the ing surface

Besides the whole face of the moon where it appears relatively smooth— parts that look to the naked eye like patches—seems to be formed of rock that gushed up in floods from a molten The pumice stone suggestion applies to great lunar plains as well as to mountainous parts The ground on which suggestion rests is an interesting example of indirect or circumstantial in astronomy

Recently at Mount Wilson Nicholson Pettit made thermal observations showed that the surface of the moon is very hot under the vertical sun but cools very rapidly in shadow—as soon as the shadow of the earth during an eclipse a certain arbitrary scale the found that rate of cooling had a value of Epstein of the California Institute of Technology then made a similar measurement the laboratory of the rate of cooling of various natural materials He found that while granite gave a value of only sixteen basalt twenty four and quartz sand of fifty pumice stone gave various values between and 140 As far as it goes this seems to indicate that the surface of the moon may consist of volcanic ash and pumice The conclusion of course gathers great force from the pre existing knowledge of the existence of so many phenomena on the moon suggestive of volcanic origin

The general impression among astronomers is that the moon was separated from the earth at a remote age by tidal action At that time the earth must have been in a molten plastic condition The separated mass that became the moon on cooling would be subject to compression from its own gravitation far more than the substance composing the earth's earth's surface gravity is only six times as great as that of the moon As a matter of fact we know that the moon's density is only about three fifths of the earth's density It has been pointed out that this corresponds very closely with the mean density of the rocks composing the outer layer of the earth's globe—a fact accordant with the theory that the moon consists of matter that once formed a part of the superficial portion of the earth The denser materials such as iron and other heavy minerals remained in the core of the earth

This theoretical history of the origin of the moon is consistent with the evidences of a fiery past which its surface presents

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON

Frank E O'Hara Chicago protagonist bids us turn and remember what we were in 1900 He says today's world is brighter than their parents Try to get back and recall what you knew about and events and the world when you were a youngster and then consider what you or any man or woman knows today One thing is certain—there is certainly a much larger stock of loose useless information now than there was then Professor O'Hara says

One of the most significant changes in the modern student is the broadening of the background of general information

The interests of members of the football squad used to be confined almost exclusively to athletics and to the concerted and personal fact which they learned in the classrooms

But almost any college football player now can tell you about O'Neill's symphonic music Lorado Taft or any other prominent figure in any of the arts

The class of 1929 is inclined to be more liberal and tolerant than were its predecessors of 1900

Personal interest in literature modern and fine music is respected A student was an enthusiast in any branch of learning used to be regarded on the campus as a freak

Students are suspicious of traditions taboos and precedents Their inquiring minds may approach cynicism but they want to obtain ungarnished information

When former Senator John Simon Guggenheim set up a memorial foundation in memory of his son and put $3 000 000 it he made a glorious investment The purpose of the foundation is to improve the quality of education and the practice of arts and professions in the United States foster research and to promote the cause of international understanding

Could there be a wiser method for spending money? Just a few such grants of $180 000 from the fund are to a number of scholars and artists them in carrying on studies and researches

Among those who have had help from foundation are Professor Compton winner of the Nobel prize in physics for 1927 poet Benet who wrote John Brown's Body That's paying real dividends

HANDS UNSEEN

by HERMAN LANDON

Author of "The Forbidden Door." Landon writes another thrilling mystery story, the adventures of "the Gray Phantom"

SEVEN

H – queer part the lieu we t on In the br t was bolted on the in l is equipped with a at absolutely precludes any kind There is only the room and in front Leary shutter Both the ips and the fastenings on ere intact It didn t ble for any one tered that room without l by the occupants and what happened

Mrs Warne and the ser of Craig was lying on the le side of the room be ween him and the r kitchen knife was th wound in his chest le of the table about feet away Bell was an rest hair dead to the t recover conscious ee hours later and then it was discovered that he had a good sized lump on the back of the head He said it all happened so quickly that he didn t know what was up until something struck him on the head and put him to sleep It appear that about 20 minutes before it happened some one knocked on the door Bell opened and looked out in the hall but couldn t see anybody and Craig would not let him leave the room When the door was locked again a note was found in the chair Craig had occupied It said the writer hoped he was enjoying his last night on earth When Craig saw it he turned weary all of a sudden He accused Bell of all kinds of crazy things even threatened to kill him While he was pointing his gun at Bell there came a knocking on the door again Bell opened and looked out but Craig wouldn t let him leave the room Bell was plumb disgusted Then the murderer appeared

From where asked the inspector

Nobody knows From the looks of things he must have stepped through a solid wall Bell tells me he couldn t have been hidden in the room, for he had made a thorough search. He had also examined the lock on the door before fastening on the shutter and the window and tapped every portion of floor walls and ceiling There wasn t a loophole anywhere He can t explain how the murderer got into the room For that matter though the way he got out is just as mysterious as how he got in for there was no sign of him when Mrs Warne and the servants entered

Didn t Bell see anything of the murderer

Not a thing Craig was giving him enough to think about just then All he remembers is that some thing struck him on the head

You think Bell is telling the truth

Culligore hesitated for a moment It all is a slick one but if he wanted to tell a lie why didn t he tell a good one What he did tell me sounds wild enough to be the truth

The inspector stroked his robust chin reflectively There must be an explanation somewhere in those walls of course Miracles don t happen in this day and age

I am not so sure about that inspector I ve seen several murders that were committed behind solid walls and bolted doors but in all of them there was a loophole somewhere Theres one here though I spent a solid hour looking for one and so did Bowman It s easier to believe that a ghost killed Craig than that a murderer got in and out of that room

Harrington scowled him stowing Thats no lieutenant There must be a natural explanation somewhere

Thats what I ve been telling myself but I can t find it

Haven t you a theory of any kind

Several Inspector Thats the trouble—too many theories Bowman has obtained a warrant for the Gray Phantom s arrest He thinks the letters in Craigs pocket prove that the Phantom did it Since anything is possible for the Phantom he goes on the assumption that it isn t necessary to explain how the murderer got in or out of the room I don t quite agree with him

Culligore chuckled awkwardly The Phantom always played the game according to his code He can raise more hell than anybody I ever know and still not like a gentleman I take my hat off to him Inspector even if he is a crook Just the same if my chance ever comes he needn t expect any quarter from me He s played a number of jokes on me that are rankling yet If the Phantom is going to be pinched I want a hand in it Thats why I asked you this morning to give me a day off I wish you would make it a week Its a stiff job and its going to take time

All right then Take a week If anybody can catch the Phantom you can and I m going to rest a lot easier when he is under lock and key But I have a feeling that you are not sure he killed Craig

I m not sure of anything just now The natural thing under all the circumstances would be to suspect Bell We all know Bell is crooked and he was right there with Craig in the room As far as anybody knows he had no motive but he certainly had the opportunity If we make up our minds that Bell committed the murder all this spooky business is eliminated But Bell has a lump in the back of his head and that seems to clear him The doctor who examined him says he couldn t possibly have inflicted that bump with his own hand Everything considered I don t believe Bell did it although that would be an easy solution

Then who but the Phantom could have done it?

That s what I ve been asking myself inspector Those letters look bad though I don t believe the Phantom wrote all of them If I suspect him it all it is for the same reason that I cannot suspect him I don t know of anybody else who can pull off a murder that way There s only one man alive who has the brains to dope out a stunt like that, and that s the Gray Phantom That s the one big argument against him All the other arguments point the other way The Phantom has gone it straight for almost three years He s had some wild adventures but he went into them for good reasons and he did us several good turns Here s another thing The murder of Craig as far as we can see had neither purpose nor reason behind it It was a wanton crime and—

Hold on interrupted the inspector The Phantom wrote to 10 rich men asking each one to contribute a million to his fund Craig was one of the 10 and it seems he refused to come across

Wouldn t it have been good policy for the Phantom to scare the other nine into submission by making an example of Craig?

Maybe sir said Culligore doubtfully That s said supply the motive all right On the other hand we want to remember that the Phantom has always steered clear of murder He has cut some wild capers but he always boasted that he never killed a person

Bad logic ' objected the inspector Every murderer could make the same boast until he committed his first killing He had to begin some time

' Something in that sir admitted Culligore rising If the Phantom killed Craig I hope to put the steel bracelets on him before long, but I m going to make sure first

"And how are you going to make sure?

Culligore grinned and twirled his hat in an awkward way ' Maybe I ll ask him

' Ask him ' echoed the inspector incredulously

' Why not? The Phantom always does the unexpected thing He might answer me truthfully just to be original That reminds me I have never yet caught the Phantom in a lie '

Harrington gave him an astounded glance You re an optimist about human nature Culligore Go ahead and ask the Phantom if he killed Craig But first you have to find him Where are you going to look for him ''

"I m not going to look for him at all inspector There was a mysterious twinkle in the lieutenant s eyes Instead I m going to do as the French do—find the woman Its the quickest way '

Wish you luck said Harrington dryly as Culligore started to go You will need it '

A Story of Boyhood Adventure

BY JUDD M LEWIS

TOMORROW will be Friday and three weeks from tomorrow will be the last day of school and I am going to kiss the front door of the school right smack on the doorknob and tell it goodbye for three months and tell it I don t care what happens to it Snakes have come back mud turkles and frogs are in the creeks and ponds the world is covered with blackberry and dewberry blossoms and wild strawberry blossoms and dogwoods are in blossom and the air is full of kites and all the little kids are playing tops and marbles and all of us big fellas are limbering up our pitching arms If it was not for our father and two cows I would have a good time this summer and it aint the cows fault either They couldn t make me milk them if he wasn t around

When I had let Jubilee down and had milked the damned brutes and the bunch was swinging, whilst waiting for me to feed my face my father was telling my grandfather how to raise boys He said to make them work hard and stay in nights and keep them in school and send them to college and you would make good men of them My grandfather said to me, tell him how to raise boys because he didn t expect to have any use for the information He said that keeping them in nights was a pretty good plan and he wunk at me, and that kinda made me wonder what he thinks he knows If my father was brite he would know that a boy can t be kept in nights when his window opens onto a roof as near as Farrel s and if he ever looked out of that window he could see the marks of my feet on Farrel s shingles where I lean with my feet on their roof and my hands against the side of our house till I get to where I can reach the high fence and get down

Just then my mother looked out of the window and gave a scream, and we all twisted our necks and gave a look and she had let Annabelle Lee run around while we et, and Nibs was swinging in the swing as high as he could go and was holding Annabelle Lee between his feet, and he heard my mother scream and before she could get out to him he had stopped the swing and left Annabelle Lee on the ground and the whole bunch had skun out I skun out too to go and get my cows to the pasture before I got blamed for it I told my grandfather that I guess my mother didn t want Annabelle Lee to get tough, and he said the world don t like tough girls

Feeble brung the first flicks to school today, and when I asked her where she got them she said the woman that raised them wasn t looking She would like to make me think she swiped them. I know her too well

The Heart Story of a Woman's Lasting Affections

BY ADELE GARRISON

Lillian Comes To Rescue When Philip Veritzen Demands an Explanation

My employer was angry I knew that instantly for though his tones were suave they had the chill of Arctic ice

Mrs Graham he said when he had made sure of my number This is Philip Veritzen I am appealing to you for light upon a very perplexing situation I returned to my hotel to find my room gone with no forwarding address The management tells me that a friend Mr Jackson was taken to the hospital last week after an attack by mistake The hospital refuses me Mr Underwood s full information concerning Mr Jackson Telephone to the Lambs brings the answer from the company that the telephone has been permanently discontinued that the tenants were common people and have left Can you give me any information"

I resisted the impulse to tell him curtly that Mr Underwood had talked to me first it would have been unnecessary to bother to question anyone else

Yes I can tell you what you wish to know I said in tones that matched his own Ned and Mr Jackson and Miss Lincoln all are staying here at the farmhouse

I think the famous theatrical producer came nearer to excited sputtering than his previous had ever risked

What—What s that? he asked quickly then his tones congealed again

Will you be good enough to explain? he asked or rather demanded as if I could have fancied myself in the offices of the Veritzen organization with the great man fell to demanding explanations of some error in judgment or action upon the part of a subordinate

Lillian came hurrying down the hall toward me giving me a signal to stop I thing till she had spoken to me I spoke quickly into the mouthpiece

Will you wait just a second or two Mr Veritzen? I am compelled to leave the telephone for an instant

Of course ' he returned courteously but there was distinct displeasure in his voice and I knew that in cross annoyance at being kept waiting he was his

I put the receiver down and hurried over to Lillian who swung me away from the telephone so that we no longer faced it and began to question me in the almost inaudible fashion which she perfected during her secret diplomatic work in the World war

Phil Veritzen?

I nodded

Wanting the low down on everything I suppose '

Exactly

And in the general humor of a golfer with its head waving!

I could not suppress a grin despite my irritation at my employer

That describes his attitude perfectly

Well! There s one thing certain He mustn t come here We ve got enough on our hands now without him careening around the billiard table You must fix him somehow It will be all right after we get into the hotel tomorrow But here with everybody keyed up to the last notch he d be just about as soothing as salt and vinegar Is your car in shape?

It was an hour ago '

You re as cautious as a Vermonter ' she said grinning impishly Now I m going to put you under orders Yours not to reason why and all the rest of it I m going to talk to the gentleman now and you re going to follow my cues It will be like a drive for you with the old mule but I ll manage things so the Dicky bird won t make too high an ascension '

She swept past me imperatively and picked up the dangling telephone receiver

Phil! she said airily 'Hello! old darling Life is awfully awful to me again now that I am hearing your voice Where are you and how many minutes have you free'

She screwed up her face in an impish grimace at me as she listened

Oh! that s lovely! No Mrs Graham can t come back to the 'phone I won t let her You heard me, and it s already in words of one syllable, so I won t repeat it But if you ll drive your car directly down to Bridgehampton beach, I ll drive down to meet you. Perhaps I shall be accompanied Who knows? At any rate you ll receive the explanations you desire, and you can t get 'em in any other way Me, I tell you no Business of hammering the table I s is, old dear. See you in fifteen minutes or thereabouts "

Mother's Day Numbers

FRIDAY NIGHT OFFERINGS

Featured in Radio Bill

BY MAC L. ROY

TWO national networks will pause in their radio observance of National Music Week Friday night to pay tribute to mother who will hear her day on Sunday

Using Ernest Ball's famous song "Boy O Mine" as the musical setting the Story of A Song hour will dedicate its program to Mother's day in its broadcast over stations of the Columbia Broadcasting System at 7 o'clock Friday night

As will be remembered the story of Ball's rise to fame and fortune will be unfolded in dramatic episodes. Dr. Lyn of her unselfish love and sacrifice with romantic music as its background will provide a touching and interesting half hour.

As special feature entertainers, Matters for Marion Downey, popular radio star and guitarist, and two comedy acts will sing. I'll Always Be Mother's Boy from Mother's Boy in the broadcast of the Hudson-Essex Challengers over the WJZ network of the NBC system at 9 o'clock Friday night.

The orchestral program on which he appears is devoted to the compositions of Irving Berlin. The Challengers will hop back to the earliest days of modern syncopation opposite with Maxwell's Ragtime Band, a hit nearly 9 years ago. Most of the newest numbers on the program are taken from picture theme songs and include Coquette, Marie, Where Is the Song of Songs for Me and When My Dreams Come True. Other Berlin numbers on the program will be Everybody Step, Say It Now, My Wife's Gone to the Country, International Rag, Selections from Music Box Revue, Oh How I Hate To Get Up in the Morning, and When I Lost You.

PHILCO ARTISTS TO CONCLUDE OPERA

THE radio version of Oscar Straus's opera bouffe, The Chocolate Soldier, as presented serially by the artists of Philco Theater Memories is to be brought to a denouement with the broadcast of the third and over the WJZ network of the NBC system at 8:30 o'clock Friday night.

AMERICAN MUSIC FEATURES PROGRAM

A PREDOMINANT flavor of American music in observance of National Music Week will feature the Grigsby Series hour over the WEAF network of the NBC system at 7 o'clock Friday night.

Surprising contrast within the realm of American compositions is disclosed by effective combinations such as Victor Herbert's Dance Burlesque and "Danse Barbare" by the more modern composer Will Donaldson.

TUBERCULOSIS SUBJECT OF HEALTH TALK

DR. GRANT HOSMER, examining physician of the New York Tuberculosis and Health association will deliver the health talk over the WJZ network at 6:15 o'clock Friday night discussing the aspects of organized medicine's war on tuberculosis.

"If You Don't Feel Well, Take Nu-Erb," Advises This Man

I feel so grateful for finding this who is suffering from indigestion as I do the stomach or any such trouble my advice to them would be to get started using Nu-Erb, said Mr. W. W. Woodford, 129 Delevelero Blvd., Warren, Ohio.

I am entirely convinced of the merits of Nu-Erb because of the results in my case, said Mr. Woodford. My stomach was in such bad shape that even the lightest of foods soured, fermented and formed a gas in my stomach that caused much pain and just made me feel miserable and distressed all the time. I'd awaken in the morning with a bitter taste in my mouth and never had any appetite for my breakfast. I was also a chronic victim of constipation.

I had been reading a lot about Nu-Erb as well as many other medicines and usually I don't pay much attention to those kind of things but I was particularly impressed by the large number of people who had been helped by this medicine and that is why I decided to try it myself. It was a lucky day for me that I did for this medicine has completely relieved the indigestion and all other distress in my stomach. I awaken in the morning now ready for a good hearty meal and have more strength and energy than for any time that I can remember. It has also regulated my bowels and I now have no trouble in this way.

Stump & Sams Pharmacy, 121 S. Main St., is the only place in Marion where Nu-Erb may be purchased.—Adv.

I am so happy—that the last pimple is gone

You may be happy, too!

The way to the skin is through the blood. Strong, healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

EVERY evening thousands enjoy themselves at dinner-parties dances theatres, games, clubs. Many thousands more are denied the joy of such merriment and happiness

Maybe this denial is due to a skin trouble First impressions cannot be good without a clear skin—first impressions are quickly made and are not soon forgotten Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize, but new acquaintances may not be so charitable Skin blemishes are not inviting Neither can they be covered up They embarrass. Hold people back Steal away joy and happiness

A lovely—clear skin—is within the reach of all. To those who have lost it, hope is offered You, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose petal in texture pretty as a picture and without a single pimple

Many thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking SSS. It is Nature's own blood tonic for raising the body's power of resistance to disease, improving the appetite, building firm flesh and clearing the skin

Take SSS at meal time. You will be delighted with its blood building and tonic effect.

Trade-in Sale

Tires at lowest prices ever

Extended for a few days more

We are breaking all previous records in this sweeping value-giving Trade-in Sale. Car owners by the hundreds have traded in their old tires for new Generals. We are extending this sale because of the public enthusiasm that has been shown since it started.

You still have time to take advantage of this event

You'll never find things so favorable for trading in your old tires as now. With the price of crude rubber up 40%, tire prices are still based on the previous low cost of rubber.

By trading in now you can get Generals at the lowest prices ever offered. You protect yourself with the quality that will carry you through the next high-priced tire period.

Full-value allowances on all kinds and all makes

No matter what brand of tires you are using, bring them in today and cash in now on every unused mile left in them. In exchange you start off on brand-new Generals that will give you the safest, most comfortable and the longest mileage you have ever known.

With crude rubber going steadily up you need the protection against the kind of quality that is weakened by the reclaimed rubber used when rubber is high. General's policy of never tampering with quality, regardless of the cost of crude rubber, has won the confidence of car owners from coast to coast.

Now is the time to learn the true meaning of General's Top-Quality. A saving in first cost that will amaze you, plus the economy that is spread over many seasons of uninterrupted mileage.

The New GENERAL Dual-Balloon 8

Greater mileage at regular balloon low-pressure It completely reverses the tendency of today toward high pressure or moderate pressure in tires

It introduces a new permanency of non skid far beyond the point where you expect to run on smooth rubber It does away with the necessity of running on tires that wear prematurely "bald"

In puncture freedom, too, it is far ahead Even the remote chance of a puncture is reduced to the vanishing point

Our Trade in Sale includes the new Dual-Balloon 8 and the regular super lines of 4-ply, 6-ply and 8 ply Generals

Trade in now for General's Top-Quality that means season after season of trouble-free driving and the economy of the longest, safest and most comfortable mileage you have ever known.

Special Bargains in Used Tires

The used tires go on sale as fast as we take them in. Many only slightly worn and many are brand-new tires of standard makes. All sizes, all makes, all kinds go on sale. Select yours early.

PORTSMOUTH May 9—The mystery surrounding the slaying of Wayne Wright, 17-year-old high school student of Wheelersburg [illegible] was no nearer solution today than it was when Wright's bullet riddled body was found in a farm yard near his home May 1. Officials have been unable to discover any clues which might reveal the identity of the slayer.

Scioto county authorities were reported to be working on information furnished them by an unknown girl who it was said, all the officials Wright was slain for revenge by a man several years older than the victim. Further reports stated the girl was hypnotized and while in a trance she described the murder.

Officials hope the girl's information will lead to a tangible clue being their benefit in her power on a former case, in which she was placed in a trance and provided officers with information which led to the identification of a body found in the Ohio river.

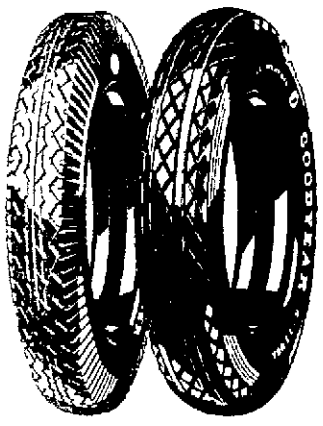
Another "Old Habit" is passing out of the picture



WEARING the last miles out of old tires, during the slipperiest, most dangerous driving months of the year when "flats" often mean going into a ditch and skidding frequently causes crashes—

That was the old "habit." But, nowadays, car owners realize that this is the very time that safe new tires are most needed.

We are equipping many cars with new Goodyears right now. Their owners don't propose to take chances on smooth, thin tires by waiting until Spring.

No sir! And they get their new Goodyears cheaper, too, because we can allow more for the old tires now than later when they'd be done for.

See us about this before you have any more close scrapes or delays in cold, wet weather. The new 1929 Goodyears are the finest quality in history, lower priced and guaranteed against defects for life.

Ride in Safety Now

Pay us later when you'd ordinarily buy new tires for your car. This offer applies to charge account customers on trades of pairs or sets.

YEAR-ROUND SERVICE FREE! We clean and straighten your rims, apply the new Goodyears, inflate and inspect them regularly for you—without extra charge. We are always here to take care of you promptly.

THE LAST & BOND
Executors of the Estate of Charles S Ford Deceased

Issued by Warden P E Thomas of the penal institution.

The fire which destroyed the interior of one cell house and 14 other cells occurred last October 19 being in the opinion of prison officials deliberately set by Pickering and Miller Whitmore Marietta and Tillman had not been found guilty of participation in the conflagration.

Pickering was taken by the state police to the Marion county jail and then to the Columbus city jail for safekeeping.

Pickering was before Judge Florence Allen in the municipal court yesterday for a preliminary hearing on a charge of barbering without a license. He was represented by counsel appointed by the court. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

Pickering was brought to Columbus after he was arrested in Hamilton by Detective Sergeant Ralph Hoffman who had been here on a tip that Pickering had confessed the prison fire and named the men who had set it.

Hoffman refused to divulge the source of his information. He said that Pickering had told the story to Hamilton police to escape being beaten by detectives who had charged the convict with burning the prison.

Pickering was taken to the home of Mrs Nora Bennett in the suburb and there identified the prisoner.

Pickering was born in Hamilton 21 years ago. He has been in trouble frequently since he was 16 years old. He was sentenced to the penitentiary from Butler county for breaking and entering.

AKRON SEEKS TO BE CENTER OF AVIATION

Municipal Airport in Rubber City Reveals Great Activities as Facilities Expand

MUNICIPAL AIRPORT AKRON May 9—While some cities in Ohio are wondering what this aviation stuff is all about Akron is preparing to become one of the air transportation centers of Ohio.

Here at Akron are two gigantic hangars each 160 feet long 80 feet wide and 100 feet high Each has a single dirigible of 6 500 000 cubic feet capacity at present 800 feet long with facilities for 100 passengers and a crew of 50.

Also on the other side of the field are a clubhouse hangar with facilities for 100 ships with workshops for servicing and repairing planes.

Is Busy Place

In the Goodyear administration building housing the terminal traffic office for air passenger routes hotel and restaurant general offices radio lines coming into the city headquarters of the Akron Aviation club lecture and class rooms for student pilots and individual rooms for pilots starting or completing daily runs.

That is the picture you see after a visit to Akron's municipal airport and it is a picture painted on the easel of civic progress by able headed business leaders who see with keen foresight the tremendous advance being made by aviation.

Three factors enter into this airport—the city of Akron the Goodyear company and the group of business and financial leaders making up Air Service Inc.

Many Balloons Built

Of the three the Goodyear company is perhaps the greatest single factor in the growth of aviation here because of its work in building lighter than air craft since 1912. More than 1 000 balloons of various types and more than 100 airships have been built by Goodyear and at present their staff of aeronautical engineers is at work on the first of two super dirigibles for the United States government each to cost $3 000 000. These are being built by the Goodyear Zeppelin Co of which Dr Karl Arnstein chief engineer of the Zeppelin company in Germany, is vice president.

Although government airships the largest in the world the first two dirigibles are expected to be put into passenger service. Staterooms for 100 passengers dining rooms promenade decks smoking rooms shower baths and facilities for a crew of 50 are provided in each of these superdirigibles.

These ships will have a cruising radius of 8 000 miles with a top speed of 90 miles an hour driven by engines of 1 800 horsepower. It is estimated in such a ship a business man could leave New York Saturday morning, arrive two days later in London or Paris spend four days on business leaving there Friday morning and arrive in New York again Monday morning.

War Machine

For military purposes this ship could be armored for machine guns or light artillery on top in the nose the tail the sides in the control car and at the base of the engines and could carry four to six airplanes the planes to be drawn up inside of the ship and released and taken on as desired.

When completed these monster dirigibles will be housed in Akron which will be the base for all test and training flights.

The second principal factor in Akron's airport is Air Service Inc. Made up of business and financial leaders this organization will cover every phase of aviation including selling planes operating air passenger routes and conducting one of the highest type schools for fliers in the country.

Working hand in hand with the Akron Municipal university the company will conduct a 90 semester hour course at the university in academics motor repair and rebuilding, and a complete ground course that is to cost $40. The course is restricted to 60 students and more than 3000 have applied to take the course.

Complete Preparation

After the ground course will come actual flying work which will include 60 hours at the stick and which will cover every phase of flying under direction of competent instructors.

Completion of the course will find the student expert to pass the examination for a transport pilot's license the highest rating given by the department of commerce.

The directorate of Air Services Inc includes such men as P W Litchfield president of Goodyear H S Firestone president of Firestone and F W Seiberling president of the Seiberling Co.

Besides the two [illegible] hangars the field is to have [illegible] feet wide [illegible] feet long with a capacity of nearly 800 feet long with facilities for 100 passengers and a crew [illegible].

It was a sad looking group of Indian squaws who left the reservation Tuesday when the show moved to Kenton for the first performance of the season for they had spent the previous night weeping and wailing over the death of a grandchild of Big Chief and Mrs White Horse Word of the little death which occurred at St Francis S Dak was received Monday evening and immediately the air was rent with the lamentations of the women which continued throughout the night

Minor Capital Official Decides Sinclair Must Be Protected From Reporters

Welfare Director Orders Major Peak Not To Give Out Any Information About Oil Magnate's Jail Activities

WASHINGTON May 9—Harry F Sinclair the only multi millionaire pharmacist Washington's big jail house ever had continued to roll his pill today behind a veil of secrecy although drawn between him and the public in awed District of Columbia officials.

Efforts to ascertain details concerning the incarcerated oil baron's movements within the prison have proved unavailing, insofar as ordinary sources of information are concerned and it appeared today that disappointed from congress and elsewhere the impressed city fathers of the district is according Sinclair preferential treatment.

Certainly no other prisoner in the district jail ever has been so isolated and protected from any kind of publicity. Never before has a gag rule been imposed upon Maj William L. Pesk superintendent of the jail. He has been forbidden to admit even that Sinclair is in the jail. The unusual secrecy has given rise to many rumors.

Minor Official

George S Wilson who enjoys the title of director of public welfare in the district is the official who has given jail officials their orders to reveal nothing concerning the oil kings activities in the jail and to permit no reporters to come within gunshot of the place. He has been a minor official in the district government for a score of years connected with various charitable and reform activities.

The bustling director of public welfare gave as his reason for the orders today that a score of reporters around the jail the first day hurt the morale of the office staff. Wilson is a reform worker. Curiously neither Major Peak nor M M Barnard superintendent of penal institutions asked for the order. Wilson himself has not visited the jail since Sinclair ensconced him self.

I am acting on my own light and according to my best judgment. Wilson said today.

Prior to the issuance of his order there were comparatively few reporters or Washington mans in general who knew of Wilson or his authority. Members of congress asked. Who is he when told of the orders.

Wilson was vexed a lot under pressure from the reporters but after a visit from one of the members of his staff who is a prominent Washington banker—he found a rescinded termination to protect Sinclair from unwelcome publicity at all cost.

Major Peak said Wilson could give out no information about any prisoner or of his own activity in the jail and under no circumstances were reporters to be allowed in the jail.

Wilson said he considered the publicity about Mr Sinclair deplorable. The mill owners oil baron may be prisoner 10 or 6 to a lot of people but is advised Mister Sinclair is the diminutive director of the districts welfare.

ROAD THREATENED BY BURNING MINE

Brick Pavement Sinks Two Feet at One Point Near New Straitsville

NEW STRAITSVILLE May 9—With deliberate swiftness workmen labored today to reinforce a section of the main highway here which has been undermined by Perry county's perennial peril the great burning mine of Shawnee.

This same fire threatened last month to destroy the high school here. The school lay directly in the path of the smoldering inferno. After feverish efforts it was checked.

Warning signs on the highway gave mute tribute to its devastating character. At one place in the road way the brick pavement has sunk in at least two feet.

Dangers undergone by persons unacquainted with the district wanderers through it were exemplified last week when a horse grazing on a hillside dropped through a light shell of earth into a burning pit and was burned to death.

HAGEN TURNS IN 67 TO LEAD GOLFERS

BOBBY CRUICKSHANK HAS CHANCE TO TIE OR EQUAL RECORD

American's Performance Feature Second Round of British Open Play

BULLETIN

MUIRFIELD Scotland May 8—Leo Diegel and Walter Hagen American aces completely prostrated their field in the second round of the British open golf championship today Diegel following Hagen's record breaking 67 with a 69 of his own to give him the lead with a two day total of 140 He had a 71 yesterday In addition to winning the qualifying medal earlier in the week with the rounds of 74 and 70 Hagen's 67 stroked him to the lead through the hectic hours of the morning and mid way through the afternoon with a total of 142 and many figured that his position was unassailable

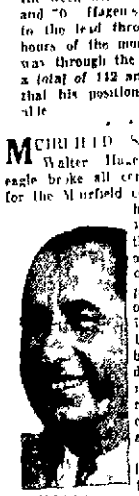
MUIRFIELD Scotland May 9—Walter Hagen the American eagle broke all competitive records for the Muirfield course today when he shot a glittering 3 4 4 67 in the second round of the British open golf championship on how he is defending in the current tournament. With his 75 of yesterday Hagen finished the first two rounds of the classic with an aggregate of 142



HAGEN

The glow of Hagen's sensational round still was at its flush when word reached the club house that Bobby Cruickshank another American had raced to the turn in 31 strokes giving him a chance to either tie or better Hagen's two-day total Cruickshank had a 7° at the end of the first round yesterday two strokes under Hagen's medal score

If Watrous also spoiled his fine 73 of yesterday by coming home with a 40 for an 18-hole total of 79 giving him an aggregate of 152 for the two rounds. Diddley came back in 69 to take an 80 and tie Watrous at 152 while Cyril Tolley called on the last nine to get a 77 It gave him a medal for the day of 76 and a 529 day total of 150

Tommy Armour finished with a 40-38 78 for a total of 148 six strokes behind Hagen and Armour to saw a promising chance from him on the closing holes

Bill Melhorn came in with 36 38-74 for a total of 148 tying Armour in the standing while Al Espinosa had a 19-39-73 for an aggregate of 150 Meantime Aubrey Boomer the Englishman also tied Armour at 148 with a 35 6-74

Long Jim Barnes who equalled Hagen's 71 yesterday took a day off starting 80 and dropped right out of the picture

Johnny Farrell United States open champion who tied Barnes one stroke behind Diegel and Barnes yesterday, fared better than Barnes today but blew up on the last hole Johnny was out in 37 and home in 38 for a total of 75 and an aggregate of 147 one stroke behind Cruickshank

Farrell played championship golf until he reached the home hole where his second shot landed in a bunker at the right of the green Johnny dabbed his first attempt at a chip shot and missed two putts

Joe Turnesa supplemented a fine 71 going out with a 4 and 1 40 coming in, to aggregate 147 strokes for both rounds

TILDEN AND HUNTER TRAVEL TO EUROPE

Will Compete in French, British and Dutch Championships

NEW YORK May 9—William T Tilden and Francis T Hunter first and second ranking players in American tennis sailed on the liner Aquitania early today for Europe where they will try for the singles and double titles in the British French and Dutch championships They may be drafted for Davis cup play against the French

The famous Internationalists predicted that the younger American players would win all their Davis cup matches in the home zone and would defeat Italy Tilden said he expected the French to retain the Davis cup but gave the United States an out side chance to win

TRIBE PLAYS FIRST ERRORLESS CONTEST; DEFEAT RED SOX

Hendricks' Hitless Wonders Lose Second Straight to Phillies

BY BOB ELLIOTT

CLEVELAND'S tribe of wild and woolly Indians played their first errorless game of the season yesterday since the opener three weeks ago and ran their string of consecutive games over the Boston Red Sox behind a fine pitching performance by Willis Hudlin Cy Rhodes lost his fourth in a row when Ivar Swanson who has ridden Allen in center field dropped an easy chance and three runs resulted the Phillies taking the verdict by a 3 to 2 count

Four double plays by the Cleveland infield gave Hudlin no little help in getting back the Sox Hudlin gave him the same excellent support by also getting two of the twin killings and making a brilliant stop at third on pinch hitter Sarritta's hard smash in the sixth frame The Sox had men on base but failed with a chance at all the redoubtable Scarritt came to the plate Lastly Willis just began to get warm and nurse a run could the Sox scare up after that fine start

The triumph sent the Indians to the top of the second division but still three and a half games back of Bucky Harris managing Tigers from Detroit Charlie Jamieson continued his terrific clouting by getting three of the seven hits the tribe collected He included two doubles in this trio Earl Averill who is trying hard to show the Cleveland fans that he was worth all Mr Evans paid for him got a base slide off the right field screen for one of the two winning runs Earl also made a nice running catch on Lisenbee's only chance

Jack Hendricks is about ready to give up the well known ship after he reviews the remains of the Phillies second consecutive defeat at the hands of the Indians Adolfo Luque hurled one of the best games of the season allowing seven widely scattered singles but the Reds came right back and managed to collect the same number from a rookie who paraded under the name of Collins The Red legs haven't been hitting the sizes of their collective hat bands on this first eastern trip and the Red hurlers just about have to shut out the opposition to register a win Gooch and Walker are the only Reds regulars batting over .300 Johnny boasting a mark of .317 and Curt just eight points above the select list limit

The Reds had a good chance to pull off another of their famous ninth

DEMPSEY, LA BARBA ARE UNDER CARE OF PHYSICIANS IN N. Y.

Fight with Chocolate May Be Postponed, Jack Out for Several Weeks

BY DAVIS J WALSH

NEW YORK May 9—Jack Dempsey and Fidel La Barba respectively a champion and another who probably is going to be were under the care of physicians today as a result of which it may be that La Barba's unofficial world's championship fight with Kid Chocolate on May 22 might suffer a postponement Dempsey has no fights to go to but either as fighter or promoter but unless his general condition improves very soon it is believed that the boxing racket will be very little of him for some time to come

La Barba was suffering from what his manager George Blake described as a head sniffle but others less consistent didn't hesitate to say that his indisposition is a trifle more serious than that. They spoke of congestion of the lungs cited the fact that the former flyweight champion has been in a Gotham hostelry for three days and further that yesterday it was deemed necessary to call a physician In any case Blake stresses that the Chocolate bout will go on as scheduled

Dempsey virtually has been confined to his room in an uptown hotel for 10 days At one time it was feared that he was threatened with pneumonia but later his symptoms were diagnosed as influenza and grippe The list of resident casualties had a further addition in the person of Jack Kearns ex promoter man Nothing really serious just a headache The ailment is more or less bromic Mr Kearns having contracted it in the performance of his duty which consist of standing perfectly still while the boxing profession in general runs around and around and around him

TENNIS TEAMS TIE

COLUMBUS May 9—Kenyon college's tennis team for the second time this season failed to show the class and ability it is capable of and tied the score with an Ohio conference foe This time it was Capital university The score was locked at 3 all Captain Haub of the Lutherans lost his fourth intercollegiate match in three years when he was defeated by Sherer of Kenyon 8 6 6-1

The great trouble with good resolutions is that so many of them are laid on the table

St. Paul is in full possession of third place in the American association baseball race today as a result of its second win in as many days over the lowly Columbus Senators. The Saints took yesterday's game 8-to-4 scoring two runs in the initial frame, two in the second and holding the lead for the full number of innings. Columbus is back down in sixth place again having exchanged positions with the Milwaukee Brewers a cellar team until the last week when they became anxious to show the home town folks they could play ball and really proved their point.

Milwaukee swept the two game series with Indianapolis by taking yesterday's tilt 8-to-3. The Hoosier tribe which has held second place so far this season slipped down to the fourth notch. The Indians are at St. Paul today and the Brewers stay home to receive the Columbus Senators.

The league leading Kansas City Blues running true to their usual form took the sixth straight game from the Louisville Colonels. The score 3-to-2 fails to indicate the superiority of the cowboys. They were complete masters of the situation throughout the eight innings.

The Toledo Mud Hens finally got a break and after making an eight run rally in the sixth topped a 10-to-8 score over the Minneapolis Millers holders of second place. The Millers meet the Colonels on their home lot today in the first of a four game series and Toledo opens with Blues in Kansas City this afternoon.

Two Home Runs Beat Bacon's Mt. Gilead Nine

Led by Harold Fetter and Tom Kelly the C., D. & M. recreation ball team walloped Francis Bacon's All Stars of Mt. Gilead at the latter city last night by an 11 to 7 score. Kelly rode Bacon's fast ball for two triples and a single and Fetter connected for a home run and a triple.

Van Oss and Cram performing at short and second for the Marion nine gave promise of developing into one of the fastest combinations in the city around the middle sack. The score by innings:

Marion	301 000 7
Mt. Gilead	000 010 4

Batteries—Applegate and Snyder; Burnside, Bacon and Shambaugh.

New Process solves stubborn lubrication problem
Chilling to 40° below zero
makes NEW SOHIO MOTOR OIL
free from harmful Wax

ONE of lubrication's most serious problems has been development of an oil rich enough and heavy enough to withstand today's habits of hard driving at high speeds.

Until now oils rich enough to efficiently lubricate under these conditions have been found too heavy to remain fluid at lower temperatures, they spread unevenly over cylinder walls until a high operating temperature has been reached.

The presence of excess wax in the crude oil from which most lubricants come has been responsible for this condition, and for excessive carbon formation as well.

Part of the excess wax is always removed in manufacture of lubricating oils. Now comes a new and startling process for removing this harmful wax content.

Chilling the oil to a temperature of 40 degrees below zero—heretofore believed an impossible problem—centrifugal action is applied to remove every trace of harmful wax content.

ADVANCED NEW PROCESS REMOVES WAX AT 40° BELOW ZERO

Excess wax in motor oil causes trouble. Most manufacturers of good oils now de-wax by centrifugal action employing the widely known principle of the farm cream separator. But the method used in the manufacture of Sohio Motor Oil performs this vital operation at the extreme temperature of 40° below zero, producing oil free from harmful wax. The results:

1. Little or no carbon
2. Flexible viscosity—perfect motor lubrication at all temperatures
3. Perfect piston seal—full power and least danger of oil dilution

The new Sohio Motor Oil offers these features

1. Decreased Carbon Formation. The old bugaboo of carbon formation becomes less of an evil—a point doubly important in the operation of the new high-compression motors.

2 Effective Lubrication Over Wider Temperature Range. Regardless of the quick changes of temperature so common in Ohio, your motor will at all times receive normal lubrication.

Try this new de-Waxed motor oil today!

Red-White-and-Blue Standard Service Stations and dealers everywhere are displaying New Sohio Motor Oil Banners today. Drive up to one of these better lubrication centers. Ask to have your crankcase drained and refilled with New Sohio Motor Oil.

Check the results in terms of longer and cooler miles and quieter operation. Watch your thermometer and your speedometer for the most eloquent story of the New Sohio Motor Oil's superiority.

Rate Drop Causes Late Stock Rally

BEARS ARE FAVORED IN EARLY TRADING

Little Outside Funds Attracted by Opening 14 Per Cent Rate

BANKS TIGHTEN UP

Radio Corporation, General Electric Regain Lost Ground

BY W S COUSINS
I N S Financial Editor

NEW YORK May 9—A sigh of relief from the money market in the form of a reduction in call loan rates to 14 per cent in the early afternoon revived the drooping spirits of the bulls in the stock today after the relentless bear attack which had sent falling stocks since the opening of business on the big board.

Everything seemed to favor the bears on trading in the stock exchange started earlier on settled conditions today. Wall Street had little hopes of a lavish return of money in view of the failure of the 14 per cent rate to attract any large amount of outside funds and the reports that the banks and reserve board heads would show little consideration to the stock market until the situation cleared up. The industrial and railroad tasks good and bad alike were thrown on the market in the forenoon as prices dropped all along the line.

Radio Corporation's three point drop of 9½ in a steady stream of speculative selling helped conclusively that the professionals were on the selling side of the market in the forenoon. It set to work quite a few minutes after the bell about a rally to 100 in general Electric which in the early trading fell off eight points to 3 several swifts to 60 and numerous specialties had similar market records.

Transfer from the curb to the big board of the preferred United Corporation gave the professionals another fact on which to concentrate their activities. The stock did not stray very far from the price of bid at which it was introduced to trading, but actually heavy trading marked it first day on the stock exchange. Corporation backed by Morgan is the holders of $ 20 000 000 of public utility stocks.

Today's Review of Yesterday's Grain

CHICAGO May 9—Another break in wheat prices to new low levels on the crop curb yesterday was followed by a sharp rally as shorts covered the bulk of the trade and commission houses bought Start an upward reaction was likely to set in but with little public buying and prices closed with fair recoveries for the day Other grains rallied when the trend of wheat was turned upward

At the low wheat was 1@1 1/4c higher Corn was 3/4@1 1/4c up oats 1/4@1 1/2c up and rye 1 1/4@1 3/4c up Within a wheat future sold 1 1/4c 3/4c higher while Liverpool prices closed 2 1/4 to 3 down

Oil cake demand was largely due to the extreme weakness at Liverpool which was lower than due based on the sharp break in North and South American prices the previous day Shorts took advantage of the decline to cover heavily in the local market and prices rallied

Buying and short covering were caused by the relative firmness of Winnipeg, further Russian flood damage reports from Illinois and because some reaction from the markets drastic decline of the trial week was considered overdue Pushing up for today's government report on Winter wheat condition was a factor It will be issued after the close

Otherwise the situation was without important change Bucking demand, which has been flat during the sharp decline, picked up a little, with buyers asking for offers overnight because they anticipated a renewal of mill buying, according to Broomhall Export sales in all positions were placed at 500 000 bu. Bradstreet's available supply figures showed a decrease of 11 604 000 bu

The expectation that corn would rally on any indication of reaction in wheat was fulfilled. The market was weaker early but when wheat prices turned up, corn followed suit. Shorts covered and there was fair consolidation house buying

Bullish factors were the tariff revision plans, the continued activity in the spot market which caused rather active buying by cash interests, and the continued reports of delayed field work, the principal one yesterday being the Iowa weekly crop report. Local shipping sales totaled 305 000 bu

In the cash market wheat was steady; corn unchanged to 1/2c higher; oats steady to 1/2c better; rye dull; and barley steady.

Corn inspected: Wheat, 65; corn, 51; oats, 49; rye, 5 and barley, 8.
